MCGILL AND LOYOLA TIED IN FAST GAME SCORE 2-2; ROOTERS TURNED OUT WELL NATIONALS AND SHAMROCKS WERE WINNERS

Behan, Rooney and Hughes Played Good Game — Dooner Saved Many Hot Ones — R. V. C. Well Represented — National Furnished Big Surprise, Beating Laval 3-2 — "Wes." King Piling up Big Score — Strenuous Games Expected on Thursday.

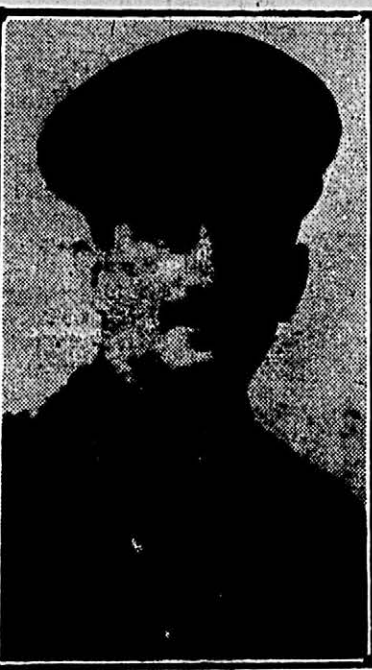

In a fast, closely-contested game, the Senior hockey team tied with Loyola last night, the score being 2-2. In the first half of the game, McGill tallied once, and increased the score to two in the second period, but Loyola came back strong, and tied the score just before the call of time.

Both of Loyola's goals were scored out of mix-ups in front of the nets, and were not due to any fault on the part of Dooner who played a great game. The whole of the McGill team worked their very hardest, and are to be congratulated to a man. If any are to be picked for special mention, they are Ted Behan and Bill Hughes. "Bill" is going strong this year, and his worth on several occasions has been of the stellar variety. Pat Rooney put up a fine exhibition, and Anderson, who scored McGill's second goal, was right there when it came to checking back. Jim Cully is going strong, and made several effective rushes. Gallery was also in good trim, and was instrumental in breaking up many of the Loyola attacks.

A feature of the game was the encouraging attendance on the part of the students, who seemed to have awakened to their duty at last. In addition to the men, there was a goodly number of the R. V. C. present, and their applause doubtless spurred on the boys of the team in their efforts.

A summary of the play follows: Mowatt secures at the face and rushes, but is checked by Behan, who passes off-side to Gallery. From the face, Behan secures, and passes to Rooney, who rushes, and passes back to Behan, who misses the pass, right in front of the Loyola goal. Slater secures and rushes, passing to Magee, who is checked by Cully. Slater steals the puck, but loses to Rooney, whose rush is checked by Magee. Clement relieves, but John Gallery checks him. Only to lose to Mowatt, whose rush is stopped by Behan. Behan rushes, but is checked by Slater, who skates down the ice, but loses out to Cully. Slater secures again, but loses to Hughes, who rushes and passes to Behan, who skates in and shoots without scoring. Slater relieves and passes to Magee, whose rush is terminated by Hughes. Bill gets away to a rush, but is stopped by Magee, who takes a shot, which is wide. Cully relieves, rushes, and passes to Gallery, who shoots. Behan secures the rebound, but is checked by Clement. Getting the puck again, Ted passes to Gallery, who shoots, Hough making a fine save. Slater relieves, rushes and gets in a shot without passing Dooner. Rooney relieves, and passes off-side to Hughes. Behan secures at the face, and rushes until checked by Loneragan, who loses to Rooney. Pat skates in and shoots. Loneragan relieves, and rushes, but is checked by Cully, who rushes and passes off-side. Mowatt secures at the face, and rushes and shoots. Hughes secures, but is checked by Slater, who also takes a shot. Behan relieves, rushes and passes to Gallery, who misses. Clement getting the puck. Gallery passes to Gallery. Gallery is checked steals it and shoots. Loneragan relieves and is checked by Behan, who by Magee, who passes off-side to Mowatt. Loneragan gets the puck, and passes off-side to Mowatt. From the face, Slater secures and gets away to a rush, which is terminated by Hughes. Behan secures at the face and rushes, only to be checked by Clement, who loses to Gallery. Slater steals the puck, and is checked by Behan, Gallery securing. John takes a shot, but the puck goes wide. Slater relieves, and rushes, but is checked by Rooney, who is recalled for kicking the puck. From the face Loneragan secures and rushes, but is checked by Gallery, the puck going to Cully. Cully rushes, and passes to Behan, who passes to Rooney, off-side. At the face, Clement secures, and rushes. He passes to Slater, who passes to Magee, the latter taking a shot. Cully relieves, and passes to Behan, who shoots. Behan secures at the face, rushes and shoots. From the face Behan secures, passes to Gallery, who is checked by Clement, whose rush is checked by Bill Hughes. Clement secures again, and shoots. Hughes relieves, but loses to Slater, who, however, cannot get past Bill. The latter rushes and passes to Anderson, who takes a shot. Clement relieves, and is checked by Gallery, who shoots. Behan secures, and passes to Gallery off-side. Behan secures at the face, and shoots wide. Loneragan rushes, and is checked by Cully. Hughes gets the puck, skates through the opposing team and scores, but the tally is not allowed owing to his having been off-side. Rooney replaces Anderson. From the face, Rooney secures, and passes to Gallery, who is off-side. Slater secures at the face, and shoots. Hughes returns the puck, but is checked by Clement, who rushes and passes to Slater, but Rooney checks him, only to lose again to Slater. The latter makes a dangerous rush and shoots wide. Behan secures and rushes, but is checked by Clement, who passes off-side to Loneragan. Loneragan secures at the face, but loses to Rooney, who passes off-side to Behan. From the face Mowatt gets the rubber, but is checked by Hughes. Cully secures and rushes. Slater checks him, but loses to Rooney, whose return rush was ended by Loneragan. The latter rushes,

RAFTERS RING WHEN ROOTERS GET STARTED

Enthusiasm Feature of Initial Practice for

MCGILL - LAVAL GAME.

Very Few Present, But Songs Sung With Great Zest.

A demonstration of what may really be done, when a thing is enthusiastically taken hold of in a spirit of determination to make it go, was strikingly furnished by the small yet enthusiastic gathering of rooters yesterday afternoon in the Union.

Some fifty or seventy-five men were in attendance at this, the initial practice in preparation for the McGill - Laval game next Thursday night.

"Dan" Sutherland was on hand, as was also "Art" Scott, and the various songs and parodies were run through several times with a zest and wholeheartedness which bids fair to eclipse the past record established by the McGill rooters at the annual final McGill-Laval fixture.

Although, however, this was very encouraging as a commencement, still the vast majority did not avail themselves of the opportunity of enjoying the excellent vocal exercise which yesterday's workout provided. All that is necessary is an increased amount of volume, with a high degree of enthusiasm and "pep," as that which was expressed yesterday in order to make the McGill Rooters' Club the greatest obstacle with which the Laval team will have to contend in order to secure a victory over the Red and White at the approaching clash.

The team is not the only losing party in the event of the rooters not doing their part. Those who do not consider these practices as worth attending are missing something which they don't as a rule get at McGill during these days of war. The privilege of gathering together in an absolutely informal manner and enjoying a free and easy sing is one which is unfortunately scarcely ever anticipated in. Consequently the little enthusiastic gathering yesterday was like a real re-union. There will be more of these re-unions in preparation for Thursday night, and it is to be hoped that a much greater percentage of the student body will avail themselves of the opportunity of shaking themselves free from their usual staid and morbid state, sufficiently to join in making the Union echo and re-echo the familiar old college songs which have been, of late, more or less allowed to sink into oblivion.

but Bill Hughes is on the watch and checks him. Behan secures and rushes, but is off-side. At the face Behan secures, and passes to Rooney, who is checked by Loneragan. The latter passes to Magee, but is off-side. Behan secures at the face, and loses to Slater, who is checked by Rooney. Half-time sounds with the score 1-1 in favour of McGill.

With the resumption of play, Behan secures and rushes. He skates in on Hough, and almost scores. Loneragan relieves, and is checked by Gallery, who in turn loses to Mowatt, who makes a rush, and is checked by Rooney. Rooney passes to Behan, who in turn passes to Gallery. Gallery is checked by Clement, who rushes and is checked by Hughes. Hughes is in turn checked by Loneragan, who rushes and shoots. Cully relieves and rushes, but is checked by Slater, who in turn loses to Behan. Behan skates up the ice, but is checked by Loneragan. Magee secures and rushes and shoots. Rooney gets possession and passes to Gallery, who rushes and shoots. Loneragan relieves, and passes to Magee, who shoots. Cully secures, and is checked by Mowatt. Mowatt rushes and is checked by Rooney. Anderson replaces Rooney. Cully secures and rushes, but loses to Slater, who shoots wide. Slater again gets possession, and shoots, but Dooner is right there. Magee secures, and is checked by Behan. Loneragan rushes, and is checked by Anderson, who passes to Hughes. Loneragan robs Hughes, and is checked by Gallery. Gallery rushes and shoots. Clement relieves and rushes, and shoots, but fails to find the net. Anderson gets possession. Slater checks him, and passes to Clement, who in turn is checked by Behan. He again secures and passes to Magee, whose rush is

"AND WHY BEHOLDEST THOU —?"

Destructive criticism is much in vogue. Carping criticism is heard on all sides. Instead of going about, looking for the best things, men go about picking flaws in everybody and everything. Each man sets himself up as a judge of every other man. He is more anxious to get the "note" out of his brother's eye than to remove the beam that is in his own eye. Every quality possessed by his neighbours must pass in review before his stern, judicial glance. Everything is taken into consideration, race, language, religion, previous deeds and words. Judgment must be passed on all.

The same spirit is manifest in Canadian life as a whole. The population of Canada is made up of many different races, with as many different languages. If these different races are to be united in the future, charity and a conciliatory spirit must be shown by all.

Let us remember that we are all Canadians, that we must all work together if McGill is to remain a great University, or Canada to become the home of the great nation, which Providence evidently intended that it should be.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The attendance at last night's game was a marked improvement upon that which has characterized former games this season. This was in reality the most important of the City League series, and although the McGill team was unable to register a victory, yet it was saved from defeat. The value of support, especially in the form of organized rooting, has been demonstrated time and again in the past, and is a fact too well recognized to be questioned. But while we commend the improved support tendered the team, we must also point with regret to the almost total lack of backing which has featured the greater part of the series which has already been played.

The initial practice of the Rooters' Club, which was held yesterday in the Union, while disappointing in the point of the number present, was encouraging in the matter of the enthusiasm with which the practice was carried out. As a beginning yesterday's try-out was a success, but there must be a big increase in numbers if the club is to be the force which it is desirable, in fact necessary, that it should be. Here is an opportunity to enjoy a few minutes of carefree enjoyment. Get out and freshen up your acquaintance with some of the old College songs, which we are so seldom privileged to sing together these days. From a purely selfish standpoint you will derive benefit from attending these practices; and then surely every student has at least enough interest in his college team to wish to see it win. Here is an opportunity to assist in the landing of that championship, and it is one which involves a minimum of self-sacrifice. How about turning out at the next rooters' practice, even if it is just for sociability's sake?

WEEKLY SESSION OF BIBLE CLASSES

Y. M. C. A. Classes Held Last Night in Hall.

The weekly session of the McGill Y. M. C. A. Bible Study Groups was held last night as usual, in the Hall. The members first gathered around the supper tables, and proceeded to do justice to the good things set before them by the hard working supper committee, while the popular Hall Victrola enlivened the proceedings with operatic airs.

"Art," Walsh, the chairman, varied the usual evening's programme somewhat by having the fellows join in two well-known hymns at the conclusion of the meal.

The classes met under their usual leaders, with the exception of two. Rev. Mr. MacKenzie was unable to be present, but his class were fortunate enough to secure Rev. Dr. Gordon, of the staff of the Co-operating Theological Colleges, as its leader for the evening. Donald McLeod is, unfortunately, on the "sick list," and his class combined with one of the other groups. Mr. Bradford was present to take charge of the Senior Group, but brought along Mr. Thompson, Supt. of the Boys' Home, on Mountain St., to tell the class about the work being done there.

Dr. Gordon's subject was "The Prophets and the Social Question." This was of special interest to those who had read his new book, "The Prophets of the Old Testament." The Doctor showed how the ideals held out by the ancient Hebrew prophets were in exact harmony with our modern aspirations after a better social life. The age in which they lived was in many respects like our own, in that a period of prosperity had caused the people to forget their old principles of brotherhood, and replace them by a hard materialism. The sins the prophets denounced would in our day be called Monopoly, Graft, and Luxury. The two forms of the latter that had the greatest hold then and now were Intemperance and Impurity.

The prophets dreamed of a new social order upon the basis of Justice, which includes, "not merely impartial judgment in the courts, honesty in business, fair wages, and equal rights, but the spirit of general fair play to every man"; in fact, they make Justice lead to the higher conception of Brotherhood. In conclusion Dr. Gordon summed up their teaching as being the truth that justice and humanity toward all men are the only safeguard of social well-being.

In the class for Fourth Year men Mr. Thompson gave an illuminating account of the work being done for the boys of this city by the Boys' Home on Mountain St., and by the Griffintown Boys' Club. The Boys' Home was begun in 1870 as a home for working boys. Before the war the average age of its inmates was 15 years, but now, owing to the enlistments from the larger boys, it is only 13½. The aim there is to cut out the institutional side as much as possible, and to make everything homelike for the boys. Those boys who work pay their board, and hence of the Old Testament." The Doctor

NOBLE SERVICES OF MANY MCGILL GRADUATES RECEIVE WELL MERITED RECOGNITION IN RECENT HONOR LIST

Captain Hugh S. Pedley Killed in Action — Heroic Aviator and Winner of Croix de Guerre Now Reported Missing — One D.S.O. and Seven Military Crosses Have Recently Been Awarded to McGill Graduates for Services Rendered — Other McGill Men Honoured in Recognition of Valuable Services.

Captain Hugh S. Pedley.

Word has been received in the city of the death in action, on the 31st of January, of Captain Hugh Stowell Pedley, M.C., Arts '09, Law '12, son of the Rev. Dr. Hugh Pedley, pastor emeritus of Emmanuel Congregational Church.

Captain Pedley, at the time of his death, was in command of a trench mortar battery of the 12th Brigade, 4th Division, to which he transferred when the 73rd Battalion was broken up in France. He went overseas with the 73rd, under Lt.-Col. Peers Davidson, as a lieutenant, and served with that battalion in France until his promotion and appointment to the trench mortars.

Captain Pedley was awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry at Passchendaele.

Having graduated in both Arts and Law at McGill University, Captain Pedley was called to the bar here in July, 1912, and joined the law firm of Cooke & Magee.

Captain Pedley's brother, Captain Frank Pedley, M.C., Med. '16, who is now at home, is in the service of the Royal Army Medical Corps. He also is the possessor of the Military Cross, awarded him for going out in the face of a rain of shells and bringing in several wounded men, and returning to succour a wounded officer in a shell-hole. Captain Frank Pedley expects to return to the front shortly.

Flight-Lt. C. G. Bronson.

Only a short time ago it was announced that Flight-Lieutenant Cecil G. Bronson, Sci. '17, of the Royal Naval Air Service, had been awarded the Croix de Guerre of the French Republic. Word now comes that this gallant young aviator has been missing since January 28, and that the probability is that he is a prisoner in the hands of the Turks. His father, Frank P. Bronson, 72 Bronson ave., Ottawa, has received a cablegram from the Admiralty stating that Lieut. Bronson was missing, and this was followed by a second cablegram, reading: "A Turkish official despatch dated January 30th, reports that an English seaplane was forced to land near Nagara. The machine and crew were captured unharmed. This presumably refers to your son's machine, as no other is missing."

Lt.-Col. A. G. L. McNaughton, D.S.O.

Lieutenant-Colonel Andrew George L. McNaughton, Sci. '10, of the Canadian Field Artillery, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order, according to official advices. Lt.-Col. McNaughton was a member of the teaching staff of the Faculty of Applied Science when he enlisted early in the war. He went overseas as major with the First Contingent, in command of the Montreal Battery. He was wounded in April, 1915, at the second battle of Ypres, and was invalided home. He returned to the front in command of the Howitzer Battery in the 2nd Division, and later was given command of a brigade in the 3rd Division, and went to the artillery staff of the Canadian Corps in charge of counter battery work. His brother, Capt. M. W. A. McNaughton, Med. '10, went over with the same brigade, and was wounded in May, 1916, and is now on the staff of the 79th Battery in Montreal.

Capt. A. D. Irvine, M.C.

Captain Austin D. Irvine, Med. '08, of the Canadian Army Medical Corps, has been granted the Military Cross for gallant conduct at the front, according to an official despatch. Captain Irvine, who is widely known as an amateur athlete and as a friend of sports, enlisted in 1916 as Medical Officer of the 245th Battalion, Canadian Grenadier Guards, a unit raised in Montreal. He was previously engaged in the practice of his profession in Montreal. On arrival in France, Capt. Irvine was transferred to the 37th Grenadier Guards, with self-reliant. Boys under 16 have to attend night school, gymnasium, slloyd, library, etc., minister to the various needs of the boys and keep their minds in the proper channels. In short, the work there is to try to prevent what the Boys' Farm at Shawbridge has to cure. The speaker showed that if the funds spent on curing the boy of bad habits were expended in prevention, there would be far better results. In some of the American cities boys' club work has reduced juvenile delinquency 50 p.c.

Following Mr. Thompson's talk, Mr. Bradford told of some of his observations in the same work, mentioning some of the things which show the keenness and initiative of the boys who come under the influence of the Home. For instance, they get out a little monthly paper, called "Climbing Up," which often shows some really clever and original thinking. Mr. Bradford appealed for volunteers from McGill to lend a hand to the excellent work being done among the "under-privileged" boys of our downtown districts.

which he served for some time in France. His good work soon won him recognition, and, at the request of the French Government, he was transferred to a French base hospital near Paris, to act as assistant to a leading French surgeon. It was for distinguished services rendered in this capacity that he was awarded the Military Cross. Capt. Irvine was on the medical staff of the Western Hospital. At one time, Capt. Irvine played with the M.A.A.A. senior lacrosse and football teams. He is a son of the late John Irvine, of Westminster. His mother resides in California.

Capt. Irvine's wife, who is an American, is also in France serving with the American Ambulance, at Neuilly.

Captain Edgar Douglas, M.C.

The 1913 McGill Graduates' directory gives the information that Captain Edgar Douglas, Med. '04, was at that time dead. Recent developments have, however, shown that Captain Douglas is, on the contrary, very much alive, and that his exploits overseas with the Canadian Army Medical Corps have gained the coveted Military Cross. Capt. Douglas is yet another graduate of McGill in Medicine who has made good overseas. He is a graduate of Dalhousie University in Arts, and before enlistment practised in Halifax, N.S.

Capt. W. H. Secord, M.C.

Captain Wesley Herbert Secord, Med. '03, has also won the Military Cross. He enlisted last year in the Canadian Army Medical Corps, and has served gallantly in an advanced medical post. He practised in Winnipeg after graduation.

Lieut. W. E. Bull, M.C.

The award of the Military Cross to Lieut. Wilfred E. Bull, Sci. '15, of the Canadian Engineers, has just been gazetted after nearly three years' service by him with the colours. Lieut. Bull was a final year Engineering student when the C.O.T.C. was re-organized under the present Sir Auckland Geddes. He served in it until the First University Company was organized in the spring of 1915, when he enlisted as a private and went overseas with that rank. On arrival in England, he was awarded a commission in the Canadian Engineers, and has since been on duty with that branch of the service. He was severely wounded in 1916. Lieut. Bull comes from Winnipeg, Man.

Capt. Maurice Pope, M.C.

Another McGill engineer honoured by the award to him of the Military Cross, is Capt. Maurice Pope, Sci. '11, of the Canadian Engineers. Capt. Pope was mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's last despatch, and doubtless won his decoration for gallantry in the Passchendaele operations. Capt. Pope comes from Ottawa, and has been overseas with the Engineers for some time. He is the son of Sir Joseph and Lady Pope, Ottawa, and now is intelligence officer of the 11th Canadian Infantry Brigade.

Lieut. L. A. Coulin, M.C.

Lieut. Louis A. Coulin, Sci. '09, of the Canadian Infantry, is attached to a celebrated French-Canadian infantry battalion which saw hard fighting recently. Lieut. Coulin's bravery in this action has won for him the Military Cross. He was born in Switzerland, thirty years ago, and had been a resident in Canada for fifteen years before enlisting with the 163rd Battalion in January, 1916, with the rank of lieutenant. He went with this battalion to Bermuda, but after arriving in England, the battalion was disbanded, and Lt. Coulin was then transferred to the 22nd.

Lt. Coulin, after completing his studies, entered the employment of the C. P. R., where he was on the staff of the passenger department until his enlistment. Previous to entering McGill, Lt. Coulin studied at the Montreal High School, and graduated from there in 1905, being the Dux of the school.

Lieut. Robert Newton, M.C.

Among other McGill men recently decorated was Lieut. Robert Newton, Agr. '12, who has received the Military Cross. Lieut. Newton, whose home is in Plaisance, Que., is with the Canadian Field Artillery, and has been wounded.

The reported awards of the Military Cross to Lieut. H. M. Ross, Arts '16, and to Lieut. E. L. Rainboth, Sci. '17, are in addition confirmed by publication in the official Gazette.

Major Donald M. Mathieson, Sci. '07, who won the Military Cross in 1915 and who is now connected with the Military Hospitals' Commission, was recently in Toronto presented with his decoration. Reports that were received in Toronto via General Alderson, General Carson and to Sir Sam Hughes, then Minister of Militia, stated:

Lieut. Donald M. Mathieson—now major—was awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry in the initiative work at the second battle of Ypres, at Festubert and at Givenchy.

According to the colonel of the major's company, the officer had won distinction on the field several separate times.

General orders of November 30th, 1915, states that Major D. M. Mathieson, M.C., was mentioned in despatches for gallant and distinguished service in the field.

Lieut.-Col. George A. Walkem, R.E., Sci. '06, is now in charge of the construction of British railways in Palestine, and his headquarters are at Jerusalem. Col. Walkem, when a young man, received practical training in the Locomotive Works at Kingston, Ont., and then took a civil engineering course at McGill. He was for years a noted engineer in British Columbia. Three years ago he went overseas and secured a commission with the Royal Engineers, and his advance has been rapid.

A McGill man whose name was mentioned in Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's last despatch is Capt. Don. C. Skinner, Arts '15, of the Quebec Regiment, who left Montreal as a lieutenant in the 24th Battalion. He was invalided from France to England, but is now back with his battalion. Capt. Skinner was a sergeant in the C.O.T.C. in 1914-15. His home is in St. John, N.B.

Lieut. Godfrey Cooper, Arts '14, who went overseas with the 23rd Battalion as a sergeant, won his commission in the field, and was seriously wounded in November, 1916, is about to return to Canada.

The marriage took place on Feb. 2, in the Church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, of Georgina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smithers, to Major Arthur L. S. Mills, D.S.O., Law '14, son of the late Right Rev. William Lennox Mills, D.D., Lord Bishop of Ontario, and of Mrs. Mills, Drummond street, Montreal. The 1,000 Bishop of Montreal officiated, assisted by the Ven. Archdeacon Norton, uncle of the groom, and the Rev. F. L. Whitley. The bride's sister, Miss Frances Smithers, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Marguerite Lindsey, Miss Catherine Robertson, Miss Dorothy Hebdon and Miss Elsie Patterson. The groomsmen were Major C. G. Greenhields, past student, of the 24th Battalion, and the ushers were all the groom's brother-officers: Capt. G. Ross Robertson, 24th Batt.; Lieut. Les Strath, M.C., Sci. '14; Lieut. G. S. McLennan, M.C., Arts '17, 73rd Batt., and Lieut. J. J. Todd, Arts '17, 60th Batt. Major and Mrs. Mills have gone for a brief honeymoon, and on their return will live for the present at Ottawa. The groom, who has seen service at the front from the early days of the war, is a graduate of Oxford, where he shone not only in the schools, but in sports of all kinds, and had the honour of membership in that inside circle known as the Myrmdon Club.

Hughes secures, but Slater checks him, only to lose to Behan. Behan in turn loses to Loneragan, who is checked by Rooney. Behan secures the puck and shoots. The latter rushes and passes to Gallery, who sends in a wicked shot. Loneragan relieves, but Gallery checks him and shoots again. Clement rushes, and passes to Magee, who loses to Anderson. Slater checks Anderson and shoots. He secures the rebound, and is checked by Gallery. Getting the puck once more he loses to Ted Behan, who gets away to a dangerous rush just as the gong sounds. The game is over with the score 2-2.

In the second game National upset all calculations when they won out against the Laval team by a 3-2 score. Laval were weakened by the absence of some of their regulars. This, however, does not detract from the credit due to the National men, who played a fine game right through. Taylor, in goal, was particularly effective. The National may have a lot to say yet in deciding the championship, even although they are themselves out of the race.

Penalties: Dufresne, Brunet, Brisebois, Guevremont, Godel.

In the third game Shamrocks ran away from their heavier opponents, defeating the Vickers' line-up to the tune of 5-1. The feature of the game was the remarkable work of King, for the winners. This clever young forward fooled the whole Vickers' team on several occasions, and put three pretty shots past Sequin. As a team, Shamrocks outclassed their opponents, and showed great speed all the way.

Rooters' Club Songs
 The following are the songs and parodies which are to be employed by the Rooters' Club on the occasion of the game Thursday night with them for future reference.

I.—TUNE: "PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET"
 Put on your red and white sweater,
 For you have none better,
 And we'll open up another keg of beer.
 It is not for knowledge that we come to college,
 But to raise H— all the year.

II.—TUNE: "MY LITTLE GIRL"
 We're from McGill, dear Alma Mater,
 And we're ready for the fray,
 We'll show how to trim the Frenchies,
 When they try to stop our play.
 We know a glen behind the mountain
 Where we'll send them if they do,
 Poor old Laval, we've got your number.
 And we'll make it hot for you.

III.—TUNE: "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH FATHER?"
 What's the matter with Rooney, he's all right,
 What's the matter with Behan, he's all right.
 Now all you fellows from old McGill,
 Cheer that team till their hearts do thrill,
 What's the matter with our team,
 They're all right.

IV.—TUNE: "TAMMANY"
 James McGill! James McGill!
 Peacefully he slumbers there,
 Billaful though we're on a "tear."
 James McGill! James McGill!
 He's our father; well, yes, rather,
 James McGill.

V.—TUNE: "JOAN OF ARC"
 Old McGill, old McGill,
 Now our men once again take the ice,
 Can't you see the good old red and white?
 Can't you see we're going to win to-night?
 Old McGill, old McGill,
 Let your spirit guide us through,
 We're going to win the victory,
 Old McGill, we will cheer for you.

VI.—YELL
 We got you—we got you,
 We got you, Frenchie dear;
 We'll shout and fight for the red and white,
 But drink your health in beer.

VII.—TUNE: "WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?"
 Why are we here to-night, boys,
 Why are we here to-night?
 We're here to down Poor Old Laval,
 And hoist the Red and White
 Upon the pole of Victory,
 Where it should be by right.
 Oh, yes boys, that's why, we are all here to-night.

VIII.—YELL
 We're out for gore!
 We're out for gore!
 We're out for gore!
 Keep her low,
 Keep her low,
 Keep her low.

IX.—TUNE: "YOU OUGHT TO BE"
 You ought to be, you ought to be, you ought to be,
 At old McGill boys.
 Where the Red and White are in the fight,
 Morning, afternoon and night,
 You ought to see, you ought to see,
 You ought to see,
 Our team rip through them,
 You can tell the world the cup comes to
 Mc-G., we all know how to spell it,
 Oh, we're going, you bet we're going,
 yes, we're going to win to-night.

X.—TUNE: "WE'RE GOING TO THE HAMBURG SHOW"
 There's a team that's going to win to-night,
 That will bring McGill to fame and glory bright;
 And our dear old Red and White,
 Will soon be champions quite,
 For we're going to lick Laval to-night,
 Poor Laval — Poor Laval.
 For their team will be a sad and sick-

XI.—TUNE: "PRETTY BABY"
 Oh! we've got a dandy team, and they are playing very good,
 For McGill Boys, Old McGill boys,
 They'll play rings around Laval, as though they were but chunks of wood.
 For McGill Boys, Old McGill Boys,
 For they represent a college that is famous o'er the world,
 As will be easily seen,
 'Cause it's sons are always helping and aroosting in the game.
 Umm, Umm, for the Red and White team.

XII.—TUNE: "ALLOUETTE"
 Oh, Laval, we will get you yet,
 Oh, Laval, we will trim you fine,
 We will wish you all the luck,
 When we rid you of the puck,
 And your grit, and your spunk, and your gall, Oh—
 Oh, Laval, we will get you yet,
 Oh, you bet, we will get you yet.

XIII.—TUNE: "THERE'S A QUAKER DOWN," ETC.
 Oh, the red and white,
 Will win to-night,
 We'll show them how to play,
 We're here to turn the trick,
 They'll feel so sick,
 For our men know the way,
 When old McGill is in the fray.
 The Frenchies stay, so still,
 And after we have got their fleeces,
 We'll let them rest in peace,
 And give a hearty cheer for old McGill.

CAPT. McDOUGALL DELIVERS LECTURE
Military Law was Subject Discussed at C. O. T. C. Meeting Last Night.
 The first lecture on Military Law was given last night in the Engineering Building by Capt. E. McDougall. There were more than 100 men present—the class was composed of students and non-students, "A" and "B" certificates. The room was intensely hot, one could hardly believe that yesterday was a heatless Monday.
 Capt. McDougall opened his lecture by discussing military law organization. The authority for military law is the Militia Act of 1906. This act is administered by the Militia Council, which is composed of (a) the Minister of Militia; (b) Deputy Minister; (c) 1st Military Advisor, the Chief of General Staff; (d) 2nd Military Advisor, the Adjutant General; (e) 3rd Military Advisor, the Adjutant General; (f) 4th Military Advisor, the Master General of Ordnance; (g) the Finance Member; (h) the Secretary of the Council.
 Military law, said the lecturer, is the law that governs the soldier in peace and war, at home and abroad. The source of this law is the British Army Act, which is the equivalent of the Canadian Militia Act. One of the peculiarities of the Army Act is the fact that it has to be assented to annually by Parliament. The object of this is to prevent England from becoming a military nation like Germany.
 The speaker pointed out that in order to administer law one must show the method of procedure. The very first thing to be done is to have a specific charge made.
 Military law and martial law was compared. Martial law is the suspension of ordinary civil law, and the government of the country by military tribunals. It is the law administered by a conqueror of a country. In England Martial Law can only be enforced in one extreme case, i.e., in time of civil war.
 All offences that can be committed by a soldier are classified under a few heads. As an example, disobedience covers insubordination, verbal defiance, etc., while under another class falls absence without leave and desertion. A man may be absent without leave, but may not be a deserter. When considering a crime, we must consider whether it was intentional or not, and the character of the offender.
 A crime under military law may not be an offence under civil law. As an example of this we may cite drunkenness. Drunkenness is not a court martial case. At home the crime is not great, but on active service the question of failure of duty may come in. When a man is sentenced to forfeiture of pay in a summary trial by the O. C., he always has the right to demand a trial by court martial.
 The question of arresting officers was then brought up. An officer is arrested before the charges against him are investigated and substantiated. (Continued on Page 2) tute, as well as the Secretary's office at R. V. C.

 Further supplies of tickets should be obtained from Miss Ivaadell Hurd, 18, conveyor of the Business and Ticket Committee.
 Last year's Demonstration was a greater success, from a monetary point of view, than the previous one, and it is hoped that this year's display will be a still greater triumph the goal aimed at being five hundred dollars.
 Some of the societies and institutions benefited by the two former exhibitions were the McGill Women's Union, No. 3 General Hospital (McGill), Massage Department of the Grey Nunnery Convalescent Home, Serbian Relief, and Prisoners of War. The need of all of these has not been lessened, and the college hopes to be able to give aid to some of them once again, and to add the coming demonstration to the great number of successful attempts they have already made to raise money for patriotic purposes.
 The admission fees will be fifty and seventy-five cents, as in former years, and it will be advisable to purchase tickets early, since their number is necessarily limited, and the general sale will probably close about March 8th.
 Worcester Polytechnic has adopted a cram course for the Senior class by which the second term is shortened several weeks. Commencement Day will be held in the middle of April instead of in June.

Special Announcement For February Fur Selling

We still have $300,000 worth of Furs in stock that were made to sell this season—and we are going to sell them.

Notwithstanding the enormous advances in raw skins which the St. Louis and New York Fur Sales show — advances which run from a minimum of 10% to a maximum of 100% — it is our intention to adhere to our usual policy of selling all manufactured furs during the present season—rather than to carry them over and sell at higher prices next season. This means $300,000 worth of Furs at cost price.

The unusual amount of our stock assures splendid assortments from which to choose — and the Fairweather guarantee applies to style as well as quality.

PATRIOTIC GYM. EXHIBITION AT R.V.C.

All Students of R. V. C. Will Take
Some Part in Big Event.

The third Patriotic Demonstration of Gymnastics and Fancy Dancing given at the R. V. C. is scheduled to take place on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 15th and 16th. All the women students of the University will take some part in this affair, either in the demonstration itself, or acting on one of the committees.

Miss Cartwright, Physical Directress at the R. V. C., has charge of the programme, in co-operation with the executive of the Athletic Association, and a good deal of pains is being taken with it, to make it even better than those of former years. Already rehearsals are going forward, the students are entering wholeheartedly into the preparations, and altogether things point to success.

Those acting on the Ticket Committee are the Misses E. Duval, L. Swindlehurst, J. Nichol, L. Roston, M. Garrow and D. Medbury, with the following class representatives: Miss A. Cherry, '18; Miss F. Grindley, '19; Miss E. Sangster, '20; and Miss G. Mills, '21. Although these girls have direct charge of the tickets, each R. V. C. student is expected to hold herself responsible for selling at least a few—which should be obtained from her class representative.

It is expected that within a few days tickets will also be on sale at the McGill Women's Union, Montreal High School, Westmount High School, Miss Edgar's, and Trafalgar Institute. (Continued on Page 3.)

IT'S AN ART.

A graduate was going around to see his friends, in the buildings on the campus, the other day, when he noticed one of the janitors. Turning to a student, he said: "How long has that janitor worked here?" "About four hours," replied the Boss. "I thought I saw him here a couple of years ago," said the graduate.
"Maybe you did," said the student. "He has been here for five years."

HARD TIMES.

He sat on the edge of the hall room bed, engrossed in deep, perplexing thought. At frequent intervals he turned loose a sigh that shook his whole body and made the windows rattle. Then his roomie came into the room, lugubrious as a rheumatic undertaker.

"An' now, Bill, what d'ye think? The doggone landlord says he's a-goin to raise the rent."
"Well," muttered Bill with a tragic attempt at cheerfulness as he took a swig of prussic acid, "I'm glad he's goin' to. I didn't see how we could do it."

"I don't wish to add to the general unpleasantness by complaining," remarked the freshette, with the big blue eyes, as she warmed her hands over an electric iron. "But I can't see why these fuel famines don't come during warm weather."

TAMED?

Teacher: "Can any child tell me which animal has the greatest natural fondness for man?"
Willie: "Woman."

FORCED NEUTRALITY.

Gerald (with a burst of courage): Would you scream if I kissed you?
Grace: I don't see how I could until it was all over.

Let's shake and be friends.—Jello.

That "Custom-made" Feeling. . . .

Semi-ready
"Specials"

The "Special Order" solves it. You may have your Suit or Overcoat made to your exact measure from any pattern you choose, and yet not relinquish the economy of efficiency, service and team-work tailoring.

Semi-ready "Special Orders" was a phrase coined to meet actual custom-made garment, cut and tailored to your measure after you select the cloth.

A perfect and precise fit is guaranteed whether you pay $21 or $40 for the value of British woollens you select.

The R. J. Tooke Stores
